

Dedicated to every girl who ever smiled at me. - JH

Wishful Thinking

You're attractive ...
The way planets are to moons
Kids are to cartoons
Teacups are to spoons
And pirates to doubloons!

You're silly pretty
What's a fella to do?

You're delicious...
Like cheese that goes with wine,
Pickles soaked in brine,
Or tomatoes on the vine,
And chocolates on Valentine's!

You stun my senses
What to do about you?

I'm wracking my brain for
A suitable metaphor
For the things that I adore
When you toss a curl or four

I lose my balance,
Just looking at you.

You're Tootsie Pops,
Roll that rocks;
You're mountain tops,
You're Camelot!

You're entrancing...
The way cobras are to rats
String balls are to cats
Weddings are to hats
And trampolines to acrobats!

You're in my head now
Who let you in there?

You dazzle...
Like rubies in a crown
City lights downtown
Big noses on a clown
The setting sun as it goes down.

How come I miss you,
When you're never here?

You're a dream...
Just think how I would feel
If you were only real
My boat would have a keel
My heart would start to heal

How did I miss you?
Were you ever truly here?
