

You Don't Have the Right!

You don't have the right!
To walk away!
You don't have the right!
To end it today!
You don't have the right!
To call me out!
You don't have the right!
To say out loud

All the things that you said
That made wish I were dead.
How could you leave me?
I thought you believed me?

You don't have the right!
To break my heart!
You don't have the right!
To tear it apart!
You don't have the right!
To put me on hold.
You don't have the right!
To stomp on my soul!

I'm declaring my freedom
From all that I've re-done!
I'm not gonna ever stop

Until I reach the very top!

You don't have the right!

To own my day!

You don't have the right!

To take it away!

You don't have the right!

To turn my heart black!

You don't have the right!

So I'm takin' it back!

Don't think I can do it?

Stand back and I'll prove it!

I'm through being the whippee

It's time I yelled, "Yippee!"

I'm gonna make it no matter

If my heart is in tatters

I can say with certainty

My happiness is up to me!

You don't have the right!

To blame it on me!

You don't have the right!

Just you wait and see!

[quietly]

You don't have the right!

I'm moving away!

You don't have the right!
It's too late to say
You don't have the right!
That you want me back
You don't have the right!
I know fiction from fact!

[back up to full blast]

Don't think I can do it?
Stand back and I'll prove it!
I'm through being the whippee
It's time I yelled, "Yippee!"
I'm gonna make it no matter
If my heart is in tatters
I can say with certainty
My happiness is up to me!

You don't have the right!
